SEVERE SNOWSTORM.

Blizzard Raging in the Entire Northwest.

THE WORST OF THE SEASON.

The Storm Is General Throughout Dakota, Wyoming, Northern Kansas and Nebraska, Eastern Utah and a Portion of New Mexico—Four Feet of Snow in South Dakota.

DEADWOOD, S. D., March 22.—The worst snowstorm of the season commenced here Monday night and has kept up continuously ever since. The snow is about four feet on the level and still coming down. Telephone communication from Sun Dance and Bellefourche states that the blizzard is raging at both places and extends to all the cattle ranges. The loss to cattlemen, it is believed, will be heavy, as the animals are weak and will drift with the storm to their death.

Neither the Elkhorn or the B. & M. arrived today, the former being snow-bound at Hay Springs and the latter east of Alliance. All trains on the B. & M. are abandoned west of Edmont. Present indications are that the snow will rival in depth the memorable storm of March 7, 8 and 9, 1878, when it fell to a depth of six feet.

General Throughout the Northwest.

DENVER, March 22.—The snowstorm which visited Colorado Tuesday night continues accompanied by a high wind. The temperature has fallen from 10 to 26 degrees throughout the west, but in this city it is not much below the freezing point. The storm is general throughout this state, Wyoming, northern Kansas and Nebraska, eastern Utah and a portion of New Mexico. Stock will not suffer unless it turns much colder than it is now. Railway traffic is not interrupted.

APPEAL OF THE IRON HALL.

A Case in Error Has Been Filed in the Supreme Court.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 22.—The appeal of the Iron Hall case from the Marion superior court was filed in the supreme court yesterday. The appeal is based upon seven errors in law claimed to have been made by the lower court.

It is contended that the ruling that the Iron Hall was not an organization for charity or benevolence within the meaning of the law of Indiana was an error; that the court erred in its ruling that the order was bound to pay the full amount of the certificates at the expiration of seven years, less the payments; that the court erred in holding that there was no legal obligation on the part of certificate holders to pay the order any money whatever, and the failure to do so obligated nothing beyond the forfeiture of rights as certificate holders, and that it was an error to hold the order not a mutual company.

It is asserted that it was an error for the court to hold that, because of fraudulent conduct of officers and maladministration, it is impossible for the Iron Hall to continue its business; and to make the receivership permanent, and to distribute the money.

WILL IT BECOME A LAW?

Some Doubts About the President Signing the Seigniorage Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The president is carefully listening to the arguments, political and otherwise, addressed to him, respecting the seigniorage bill. The best information obtainable is that he has not yet made up his mind what action to take so that no one can state what he will do or what he will not do.

Messrs. Tracy, Dunphy and other anti-silver congressmen say they believe the bill will be vetoed. On the other hand the Democratic senators who voted for the bill are generally very hopeful that the president will sign it. The message which the president sent to the New York delegation, advising them not to come to Washington, they think indicates that he has decided to approve the bill and does not consider it necessary to consume time in arguing the point, a view quiet different from that of the New Yorkers themselves. The president has until the 30th to decide what he shall do with the bill.

AN OLD MAN SUICIDES.

He Jumps From a Bridge Nearly One Hundred Feet High.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., March 22.—St. Paul, a village eight miles west of here, is startled by the tragic ending of Andrew Gayheimer, an aged and respected citizen of that place. For many years he has been connected with the famous Scanlan quarries in which vocation he has supported a wife and seven children and gained the confidence and esteem of all who knew him.

Work has been slack for several months and the old man, now 60, grew despondent and frequently declared that he was tired of life. Yesterday morning he was discovered climbing to the top of the railroad bridge, which spans Flat Rock river, the top of which is 80 feet from the river bed, which is solid limestone rock. All efforts to dissuade him from jumping proved of no avail, but without saying a word deliberately walked to the edge and jumped to death. Every bone in his body was broken.

Fatally Injured While Boxing.

UTICA, N. Y., March 22.—While boxing with John Pugh in his saloon in West Utica, yesterday, Michael Goppert was felled to the floor, injuring his head. He was picked up unconscious and conveyed to St. Luke's hospital. He can not recover. Pugh is under arrest.

SCHOOL BUILDING BURNED.

Panic Created Among the Children and Several of Them Injured.

CHICAGO, March 22.—The 4-story public school building in South Evanston, 13 miles north of this city, caught fire from some mysterious cause shortly before noon yesterday and was completely destroyed. Several of the panic-stricken pupils, surrounded by smoke and fire, took the desperate chances of jumping from the third and fourth story windows to escape what seemed to be certain death, and were severely but probably not fatally injured. The injured children are:

Esther Burdo, 18 Evanston avenue, jumped from a third-story window; back and shoulders injured.

Ella Sagert jumped from a fourth-story window; leg broken.

Newell Simmons jumped from a fourth-story window; bruised about the body.

Percy Bradley jumped from fourth-story; badly bruised about the body.

Carrie Johnson, burned and inhaled smoke.

Frank Johnson, fireman, cut by broken glass.

Samuel Mack, pressman, bruised by falling chisel.

The remainder of the children, who retained enough composure to listen to the pleading of their teachers and the firemen, were marched through the thickening smoke to fresh air and safety. The loss on the building is $50,000.

CONFESSED HER CRIME.

Marie Hermann Held For Murdering the Stevens Man in London.

LONDON, March 22.—Marie Hermann, the Austrian woman who was arrested on Sunday last, charged with the wilful murder of an ex-jobmaster, named Stevens, was yesterday committed for trial. Marie Hermann, who is 43 years old, and ugly almost to repulsiveness, subsequently confessed that she had beaten Stevens about the head with a hammer after she discovered that he had no money, although he had pretended to be in possession of sufficient funds to pay for his entertainment at the woman's lodgings.

The coroner's jury yesterday, after listening to the testimony in the case, found a verdict of wilful murder against Marie Hermann, and she was accordingly committed for trial. Among the witnesses who testified at the inquest was a detective to whom the Hermann woman had told the alleged details of her crime. After explaining to the detective that Stevens had accompanied her to her lodgings in Grafton street, she said that the latter had no money and this led to a quarrel between them. Stevens, she added, had attempted to strangle her, and she, in self-defense, had caught up a poker and hit him upon the head with it.

NINE YEARS IMPRISONMENT.

ANDERSON, Ind., March 22.—Tomp May has been found guilty, the jury, after remaining out all night, returning a verdict sentencing him to nine years' imprisonment. May is a member of the famous Dundee gang of robbers, who robbed stores and residences in the northern part of Madison county for several years past.

He was captured with the leader, Dick Goodman, last November, while entering a store at Summitville. The defendant managed to get out of range of bullets flying from Goodman's and Deputy Sheriff Coburn's revolvers, which wounded both Goodman and the officer. Goodman will be tried as soon as he is able to appear in court.

Bloody Street Duel.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 22.—Meager details have reached here of a street duel which occurred at Etaw, Guin county, 90 miles southwest of here, late yesterday afternoon, which resulted in the death of three men. Several safes of Etaw have been cracked recently and stores robbed. Two strangers, giving the names of Russell and Reid were suspected. Warrants were sworn out for their arrest, and Sheriff E. L. Hengeman attempted to arrest them. They fired on him and he returned it, killing both men and receiving wounds from which he died soon after.

An Eight-Year-Old Boy Killed.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 22.—Pascal Wilhite, the 8-year-old son of Foster Fletcher, a prominent citizen of Montgomery county, died yesterday of injuries received in a peculiar manner. The lad was sitting upon a rail fence and had cut an elder sprout, the sharpened end of which was in his mouth. Suddenly he lost his balance and fell to the ground, literally ramming the sharp stick down his throat by falling upon it. His throat was terribly lacerated, and, after suffering excruciating agony, the child died.

Railroad Coal Rates Settled.

COLUMBUS, O., March 22.—Chairman Blanchard, as arbitrator, has ruled in favor of the plea of the Ohio coal roads, allowing a differential of two and a half cents as between Ohio and Pittsburg, and increasing the differential between Pittsburg and West Virginia two and a half cents, giving Ohio an increased differential of five cents over last year's basis with West Virginia. Fairmount district. Thus the matter of coal rates, after a prolonged discussion, seems to have been settled.

Ferdinand Ward Married.

GENESEO, N. Y., March 22.—Ferdinand Ward of New York and Miss Belle Storer of Staten Island were married at the residence of Dr. J. A. West, in this village at 7 p. m., Rev. George K. Ward of Dansville, a cousin of the groom, officiating.

PRENDERGAST'S DOOM

Carter Harrison's Assassin Will Hang Friday.

HIS LAST FAINT HOPE GONE.

The Illinois Supreme Court Refuses to Grant a Supersedeas in His Case and the Governor Will Hardly Interfere—Higgins Will Also Hang—Interviews With the Condemned Men.

OTTAWA, Ills., March 22.—The Illinois supreme court has refused to grant a supersedeas in the case of Prendergast, the murderer of Carter Harrison, who is sentenced to be hanged Friday.

As calmly as if allowing a litigant 10 days in which to file abstracts and briefs, Chief Justice Baker, yesterday afternoon, killed the last hope of Prendergast of further movement in the courts for either a stay of proceedings or a new loophole by which he may escape outraged justice.

The judges filed solemnly into the courtroom, and after a few unimportant decisions of motions in civil cases, Chief Justice Baker opened the docket at the criminal page and said:

"People, No. 5, Prendergast vs. the people; motion for a writ of error, and that the writ be made a writ of supersedeas, the court has carefully examined the record, abstract and briefs in full, and has concluded to deny the application."

This was all, but it decided that the judgment of Judge Brentano's court, and the conduct of the trial of the murderer of Carter Harrison had been fully indorsed by the highest court of Illinois, and that the case was practically closed forever.

The only hope for Prendergast now is a reprieve by the governor. But as Governor Altgeld is now at Biloxi, Miss., and Lieutenant Governor Gill is not at the state capitol, the assassin's chances for life beyond Good Friday are very slim.

The reason for the seeming delay in the decision of the case is that the judges left for home Friday night last and did not return until Sunday evening, and had practically but two days in which to consider the many points presented in the brief prepared by Attorneys Gregory and Barrow. It had eight principal points, among which was a severe criticism of Judge Horton.

Mr. Gregory, who was in Ottawa, said that the governor would be asked for a reprieve and that an application would be made to the United States court for a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that the state court misconstrued the constitution of the United States.

The action of the supreme court was a surprise to nearly every one who heard of it. The opinion was general that a supersedeas would be granted, and there was hardly the least expectation that it would be flatly denied. In spite of the surprise, however, it was received with favor on all sides. Prendergast, every one said, had had a fair trial and a fair chance for his life and could only be given another chance upon a technicality. Yet the circumstances surrounding the case, including the prisoner's actions in court, were of such unusual nature, that it was the belief that supersedeas would be granted.

Thomas Higgins, the Chicago murderer, who objects to being hanged on the same scaffold with Prendergast, the assassin of Mayor Harrison, was refused a supersedeas by the supreme court. Higgins will therefore hang on Good Friday.

TALK WITH THE CONDEMNED MEN.

CHICAGO, March 22.—With the receipt of the news from the supreme court there was a rush of reporters to the jail. One at a time they were allowed to see the assassin Prendergast.

"I am in a state of grace," he said quietly. "I need no more spiritual advice and I do not want to see a priest."

"Are you surprised?"

"Of course I am. I was confident that I would obtain the supersedeas. I am very much disappointed."

"What will be your next move?"

"I want to see my lawyers."

Prendergast showed emotion, but he was quiet and without demonstration.

Higgins unconcernedly lighted a cigarette when he was informed of the supreme court's decision, and laughingly said he was ready.

"They'll crack my spine all right Friday," he said. "Prendergast will get a stay. He murdered a great man; I killed a man of low degree, so I'll get my neck injured. The jail people hunted for a razor in my cell today. Said they were afraid I'd kill myself. That was a blokey break. I don't want to kill myself. If they'll give me a barrel of whisky and a dipper, though, I'll be dead in the morning—dead drunk."

The condemned man calmly lighted another cigarette and prepared to receive a priest, as he said "to square himself for the next world."

Prendergast was searched by the authorities at the jail immediately after the announcement came, and all he had in his pockets was taken from him. He made a great protest when they took his lead pencil. "If I'm going to die, I will need that," he said. "I have some serious writing to do."

Prendergast's attorneys at a late hour yesterday evening reported that they had seen the United States judges in this city and placed the matter before them. Their principal point was that the state court refused Prendergast permission to appear as his own attorney. The federal judges agreed to consider the points raised and render a decision as soon as possible.

NEW WAR VESSELS.

Finishing Touches Being Put on the Indiana, Massachusetts and Minneapolis.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—There are three government ships now undergoing the finishing process at Cramp's shipyard which the company hope to turn over to the navy department by the first of October. They are the battleships Indiana and Massachusetts, and the fast protected cruiser Minneapolis, the latter being a sister ship of the Columbia.

The Massachusetts has been placed in the government dry dock at the League Island navyyard in order that her screws may be placed in position. While in the docks the ship's bottom will be scraped and painted. In about three weeks the Massachusetts will be given her dock trial, and on June 1, if all goes well, her unofficial trial trip will take place.

The Massachusetts is a sister ship to the Indiana, which was tested so successfully two weeks ago. The latter ship goes into the dry docks on Friday next and will be sent on her official trial trip off the coast of Massachusetts about May 1. These battleships are built for stability and steadiness rather than speed. There is no doubt, however, that both will exceed the guarantee of 15 knots an hour.

The ship that excites more interest than others now in course of construction at Cramp's yard is the cruiser Minneapolis. This vessel is almost an exact counterpart of the Columbia, the difference being in the arrangement of the fire-room which gives the former more grate space and a slightly increased boiler power. The difference gives the Minneapolis but two smokestacks whereas the Columbia has four.

Although the first trial trip of the Minneapolis will not take place until June 15, the men employed in her construction have already begun to speak of her as "the 24-knotter." Almost everybody connected with the firm believes the Minneapolis will prove a world beater and that she will exceed the Columbia's unprecedented record of 23.8-10 knots by more than a knot.

They argue that if the Columbia's boiler had not "foamed" thus necessitating a partial shutdown at critical moments, she would have exceeded 23 knots. Such an accident is not likely to happen to the Minneapolis, and her additional boiler power ought to mean additional speed.

Altogether there seems to be good reason to believe that the new cruiser will establish a record of nearly, if not quite, 24 knots an hour.

Orders having been issued by the navy department placing the Columbia in commission on April 9, her builders have increased the already large force of workmen who are putting the finishing touches on her. All of her berth deck guns are in position, and the larger guns are expected here from Washington shortly.

The scrubbers have begun cleaning her sides of the accumulation of grease and dirt. The painters have commenced painting the ship, everything in sight to be the regulation white. When all is finished the Columbia will present a beautiful appearance.

The next ship to be launched at Cramp's is the American liner St. Louis. She will be followed by the St. Paul, her sister ship.

The big battleships Iowa and Brooklyn will not be launched until later in the fall. When these are completed, the firm will have no more government work at its yard.

An improvement contemplated in the near future is the enlargement of the dry dock. It is not large enough for the enormous vessels now being constructed at the yard, and for this reason the firm finds it necessary to use the big government dry dock at League Island.

KOSSUTH'S REMAINS.

A Guard of Honor Surrounds the Dead Patriot's Late Residence.

TURIN, March 22.—A guard of honor, from an early hour yesterday morning, has been drawn up in front of the house where the remains of Kossuth are resting.

During the day the syndic of Turin visited the house and consoled the members of the Kossuth family. Later the syndic, on behalf of the municipal authorities of Turin, sent a message of sympathy to the municipal authorities of Buda-Pesth.

The body of the Hungarian patriot lies in the bed where he breathed his last. The body is attired in black and is surrounded by floral wreaths, and has been sketched by several Hungarian artists who are desirous of producing pictures of the room in which Kossuth died.

Messages continue to arrive from all parts of the world. The first message of sympathy received was from the municipal authorities of the city of Buda-Pesth.

Premier Crispi has sent a message by telegraph expressing sorrow at the death of the exiled Hungarian, and adding: "The memory of Kossuth will rest eternally with the lovers of liberty."

The body will be embalmed and will lie in state in Turin for three days.

Serious Loss to a Village.

HUENEME, Cal., March 22.—A fire destroyed about a third of the business portion of the town, including the general merchandise store of Gilger & Waterman, the Wool & Lehmann's building, Keeler's restaurant, the Bank of Hueneme and the wharf company's office. Loss, $75,000; insurance, $30,000.

Denver's Troubles Not Settled.

DENVER, March 22.—The time for filing briefs with the supreme court in the case of the governor against the old fire and police board expired yesterday. The attorneys for the old board filed another brief affirming the position they assumed at the beginning. No decision is expected for several days.

REVENUE RECEIPTS.

An Estimate Made on the New Tariff Bill.

WHAT IT PRODUCES YEARLY

The Total Amount Will Be About Three Hundred and Eighty-One Million Dollars—This Is at Least Thirty Million Dollars More Than Is Thought to Be Actually Needed.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The estimates of the amount of revenue, which the tariff bill as reported to the senate will produce show that the total amount will be about $381,000,000. This is a reduction of between $13,000,000 and $14,000,000 from the estimates in the first bill reported to the committee.

The principal reduction is made in the internal revenue part of the bill through the restoration of the present tax rates on domestic cigars and cigarettes, which amounts to a loss of over $10,000,000. There will also be an appreciable falling off in the duty in tinplate caused by changing the duty on that importation from 1-15 cents to 1 cent a pound.

The change in the fruit schedule whereby bananas, pineapples and coconuts are taken from the dutiable list, will make up the other principal items of loss. Bananas are imported in large quantities and the imposition of a duty of 2 cents per pound, as first imposed by the committee would have produced a revenue of $1,072,233.

The committee found upon investigation, however, that the bill would produce more revenue than would be needed, and as bananas are not produced in this country outside of a small section on the Gulf of Mexico, it was decided to restore them to the free list.

As the bill stands, if the estimate is correct, it will produce at least $30,000,000 more of revenue than will be needed.

The change made in the sugar schedule will not cause a showing in the estimates different from the subcommittee bill, as the first estimate was made upon sugar testing 90 degrees fine. The estimate for the present bill will probably be upon the same grade of sugar. There would, however, be a slight difference in actual returns, as the maximum duty rate under the present bill is 1.38 1-2c per pound as against 1.40 on the subcommittee bill. The difference on this score would be controlled entirely by the quantity of the high grade sugar imported.

THINK IT WILL PASS.

Brice and Gorman Believe There Will Be Few Changes.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Senator Brice of Ohio, who was the chief mover for the caucus of Democratic senators, thinks the tariff bill as reported from the committee will now pass the senate, but that the senate amendments will be materially changed in the house and in conference before the bill is finally agreed upon.

As the bill now stands he says it is not satisfactory to all the Democrats of the senate and he believes that it would be impossible to get a bill that would satisfy all. He thinks it will be debated two months in the senate, that there will be some minor changes, but the bill will pass substantially as it now stands.

There will be a fight against the income tax feature and against the abrogation of the reciprocity treaties, but he thinks both features will be retained in the bill. There will be enough Republicans, says Mr. Brice, voting with the Democrats to keep the income tax in the bill. Senator Brice said that changes had been such as will prevent vigorous opposition.

Senator Gorman of Maryland said that he thought, with probably a few small changes, the bill would be likely to pass with the support of all the Democrats of the senate. He thought that it had now been changed, as he understood it, in such a way as had made it much more satisfactory than it was when it was first reported.

WORKING ON THE CALENDAR.

A Number of Bills Passed by the Senate, But None of Special Importance.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The critical condition of Senator Colquitt of Georgia was the inspiration of the prayer of the senate chaplain, Milburn, yesterday.

The vice president being absent, Mr. Harris, the president pro tem., occupied the chair, and the senate promptly settled down to routine business and a number of bills were taken from the calendar and passed.

Among the bills passed was the one granting right of way to the Jamestown and Northern railway through the Devil's Lake reservation in North Dakota.

At 2 o'clock the senate took up the unfinished business, which was the bill to simplify the form of deeds of conveyance and trust and releases of land in the District of Columbia, and after further debating it for an hour without result, went into executive session, and at 3:30 adjourned.

Fatal Feud.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 22.—An old feud between the Cobb and King families, at Three Notches, Ala., resulted in an encounter yesterday, in which Bragg King cut John Cobb's throat. Bragg and his brother Dave were also badly cut. Cobb died. Warrants were issued for the entire King family—father and three sons—for conspiracy to murder Cobb. All were jailed except one.

Only a Joke.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The bomb found Tuesday night on the seat of an elevated railway car was examined yesterday and found empty. The police believe it to have been a joke, but are looking for the two men who left the thing in the car.

South winds; probably fair weather.

THE Sundry Civil bill, the Pension bill, the District of Columbia bill and the Fortifications bill as passed by the present House of Representatives call for about $25,000,000 less money than the same bills passed by the last session of the Fifty-second Congress. The Democrats promised an economical administration and they are keeping their word.

At a sale at Mt. Carmel a few days ago a horse was disposed of for $3. Good Lord, horses at $36 a dozen! Now, who will say these are not good Democratic times.—Public Ledger.

Some horses were sold at Lexington since the first of January for $1.25, but they were so "onery" they were not wanted at any price. Has the Ledger howler noticed the sales at Lexington this week, where saddle horses have brought prices ranging from $150 up to $500 and $600 a head?

By a confession of one of the interested parties it is proven that the Populist leaders in Alabama in the fall of 1892 made an out and out bargain with Chris Magee, to cast the electoral vote of the State, if the Populists carried it, for Harrison. Mr. Whitehead, the editor of a Populist paper in the State, makes this charge and has the vouchers to prove it. The failure of the Populist-Republican combination to carry the State defeated the trade, but the rascality of the parties to the bargain and sale is plainly shown. It simply shows to what despicable tricks the G. O. P. resorts in order to keep itself in power.

AN OBJECT LESSON IN TARIFF REFORM.

Those who are familiar with the history of tariff legislation, says the Weekly Enquirer, will remember what bitter and persistent opposition there was in 1872 to the free admission of hides into this country. It would certainly destroy the domestic industry of producing hides and seriously interfere with the profits of those largely engaged in raising cattle, so the high tariffites claimed. Notwithstanding the protests hides were placed on the free list, and the predicted calamities did not come. The results have been exceedingly beneficial in all respects. Among the results were:

1. The utilization of hemlock bark, of which we have an immense supply.
2. The price of hemlock land has doubled in value.
3. Immense tanneries have been established, requiring large capital.
4. Steady and profitable employment has been given to thousands of hands in gathering bark and conducting the tanneries.
5. The competition in the production of leather has furnished a better market for domestic hides than ever before.
6. The facilities for conversion of hides into leather and the improved processes employed and the competition provoked have reduced the price of leather to consumers.
7. Boots and shoes, beltings, harness, carriage trimmings have been reduced in price one-half.
8. The number of employes in all the departments of industry in which hides and leather constitute a part are beyond computation.
9. Americans now control the leather market of the world, in spite of all competition from all countries where pauper labor abounds.
10. Reliable statistics show that since hides were placed in the free list there has been an increase in the shoe business of 70 per cent. and in the tanning industry of 125 per cent. and an increase of wages of 15 per cent. to the employes.
11. American tanners are exporting leather of the value of five or six millions of dollars a year to Europe, competing successfully with all other countries. The annual average for the last four years of our exports of sole leather alone has been $37,000,000, 75 per cent. of which was sold in England. The duty on sole leather by the McKinley bill is 10 per cent. The Wilson bill reduces to 5 per cent. Its abolition altogether could inflict no injury nor decrease the revenues of the Government. This is an illustration of what American genius, skill and enterprise can accomplish if not handicapped in the procuring of raw materials. If our woolen manufacturers could procure untaxed raw materials they could furnish a similar chapter of industrial history. Why not?

The Home Minstrels.

The Home Minstrels were greeted by a large audience at the opera house last night, and gave a very enjoyable performance for amateurs. In fact, some of the features would have done credit to professionals. William N. Stockton and Charles J. Trapp, as end men, deserve special mention.

As solo artists Stanley Nolin, Robert J. Bissett, Charles J. Trapp, J. Reed Chunn, William N. Stockton, Dave McMullen, Charles W. Riffe, Harry Holmes and Henry W. Ray were all very good, but Nolin, Trapp, Stockton and Bissett carried off the honors.

The quartettes, Dave McMullen, Robert J. Bissett, J. Barbour, Jr., George H. Martin, and J. Stanley Nolin, J. Reed Chunn, Henry W. Ray, Clay S. Worrick were also very good in their selections. Len Purnell delivered an entertaining stump speech, and Harry Sulser caught the crowd with his impersonations of a girl of "sweet sixteen." Charles Hasson's clog dancing and Jerome Hasson's feats in juggling were loudly applauded. The cake walk was about the only thing that proved a disappointment. Professor Venie carried off the cake.

The "Darktown Pic-nic" had some features that were objectionable and that detracted somewhat from the evening's entertainment.

Science and Revelation.

Professor D. G. Brinton, one of the most learned scientists of the day, has recently stated that science agrees with revelation concerning man's creation. He accepts the belief as set forth in Genesis that man originated at some one point on the globe, and from an original "first pair." He endeavors to locate the place where the first human being was created. The professor reasons that the original man could not have been put upon any small island, or he would have perished, nor in any cold region, nor in a place "where the remains of the highest animals below him, were absent." This rules out Australia, North and South America, South Africa, South India, Northern Europe and Northern Asia. We have left only the land which lies between the Himalayas on the east and Portugal on the west, and extends north and south, including Southern Europe and Northern Africa only. It is a significant fact, says the New York World, that here have been found the earliest remains of primitive man that have as yet been discovered.

River News.

The Wells and Wave make schedule time in the Augusta, Maysville and Vanceburg trade.

The new Augusta and Maysville packet Enos Taylor made her initial trip this morning. She is a trim little craft, and as bright as a new pin in her fresh colors.

It is rumored that the White Collar Line will abandon the river above Cincinnati, and devote their entire attention to the lower Ohio and Mississippi rivers, says the Portsmouth Blade.

The Pittsburgh Chronicle says: "There are few towboats that have stood the wear and tear that the Ark and Ironsides have. The Ironsides was built in 1869, and the Ark in 1879. The Ark was built out of the old Ben Franklin, a side-wheeler, has towed millions of bushels of coal and is still in active service."

Horse Sales.

Mose Daulton & Bro. have lately made the following sales:

To B. F. Kindig, York, Pa., one bay gelding, six years old, by Enterprise, son of Red Wilkes; dam by Bald Chief (Anderson's).

To Harry Lewis, Indiana, Pa., the fine saddle stallion Lee Woolfolk, nine years old, by Donovan's Diamond, son of Black Diamond; dam by old St. Lawrence.

To C. H. Shattuck, Parkersburg, W. Va., one fancy combined saddle and harness gelding, by Eureka Prince, dam by Fayette Denmark.

The Old Friend

And the best friend that never fails you is Simmons Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do.

It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidney and Bowels and gives new life to the whole system. This is the medicine you want. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.

Kellar a Candidate.

Frankfort Capital: "Green R. Kellar, who has graced some position at the House Clerk's desk every session of the Legislature for many years, will not be there next session. Mr. Kellar has just confided to a few friends here that he is going to be a candidate for Railroad Commissioner in the big Eastern Kentucky district, now represented in the Commission by Hon. Charles B. Poyntz, of Mason. Mr. Kellar's home county—Nicholas—is far enough from Mr. Poyntz's for them to carry on a political fight without becoming 'fighting brothers,' and without destroying the mutually prized friendship that exists between them."

Property For Sale.

I will sell privately the home place of the late John McCarthy, on the south side of the Germantown pike, just outside the city limits. A good frame house and never-failing spring on the place. The lot fronts 100 feet and 8 inches, and extends back the same width 105 feet. Will be sold cheap. Apply to M. J. MCCARTHY, this office.

ABERDEEN JOURNAL: "Messrs. James J. Small, of this place, and J. A. Kenney, Maysville, have formed a partnership and will engage in the merchant tailoring business in the rooms over Blatterman & Power's stove store in Maysville. Everyone knows Jim and knows that he is to tailors as his namesake, James J. Corbett, is to prize-fighters, king of them all. If you place your money on him you will surely win."

Messrs. Small & Kenney will commence business next Monday. Your patronage respectfully solicited.

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested, and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief, or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for coughs and colds. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.

MRS. CORNELIA MORAN.

Mrs. Cornelia Moran died Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at her home in Charleston Bottom. She had been in feeble health a long time, and had been unable to leave her residence for five years. Recently she became much worse, and her condition had been critical for several days.

Deceased was a native of this county, and was in the eightieth year of her age. She was a daughter of Robert Downing, one of the sturdy pioneers of this section of Kentucky whose descendants compose some of the largest and most prominent families in the county. Her husband, Benjamin Moran, died years ago. Her surviving brothers and sisters are Messrs. Robert and Chas. Downing, Mrs. Ellis Downing, Mrs. John Morton, Mrs. P. L. Parker and Mrs. Lewis Stevens. She leaves four sons and two daughters—Messrs. Elasha, W. L. and Darius Moran, Miss Jennie Moran and Mrs. Thos. Downing, of this county, and Mr. Robert Moran, who resides at some point in Oklahoma or Texas. Deceased was greatly respected and esteemed wherever known.

The funeral will occur this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence, services by Rev. W. W. Hall. Interment in the cemetery near the home.

FOR AIDING THE INSURGENTS.

Serious Complications May Arise Between Brazil and Portugal.

RIO JANEIRO, March 22.—The Portuguese warships were allowed to leave this harbor under the stipulation, imposed by the Brazilian government, that Admiral Da Gama and the insurgent officers and men who are with him, should remain on board the Portuguese ships until the question of their ultimate destination has been settled between the two governments.

The international feature of the complications arising from the revolt and subsequent surrender of the Brazilian war vessels in these waters is assuming a grave aspect.

There is considerable excitement here in regard to the action of the Portuguese naval officers who have so far protected Admiral Da Gama and the insurgents who are with him. It is feared that the action of the Portuguese in giving shelter to the rebels will lead to dangerous complications. This is all the more likely, as it appears that President Peixoto has obtained possession of important documents showing beyond a doubt that certain European vessels systematically gave aid to the insurgents.

Whereabouts of the Rebel Ships.

BUENOS AYERS, March 22.—The insurgent Brazilian warships Aquidaban and Republica are cruising off Maldonado, 60 miles east of Montevideo. It is supposed that they are waiting for Peixoto's vessels to leave Montevideo.

SHOT BY A TRAMP.

Brakeman Dangerously Wounded While Enforcing a Company Order.

WABASH, Ind., March 22.—James Hoover of this city, head brakeman on a Big Four freight train, was dangerously wounded by a tramp, who shot him as the train was leaving Claypool. When the train started a gang of "hobos" boarded it and were ordered off.

All obeyed but one, who hung to a boxcar ladder until Hoover approached, when he also dropped off, and, pulling his revolver, he fired several shots at Hoover, who stood on the roof of the car. One shot penetrated, Hoover's coat passed through several memorandum books in his inside coat pocket, struck a pencil holder and entered his breast, passing around his ribs. But for the obstruction Hoover would have been instantly killed. The railway yards here are alive with tramps, and trainmen are having much trouble with them.

Died While a Passenger.

LAPORTE, Ind., March 22.—A man was taken ill on a Lake Shore train, between Chesterton and Otis, early yesterday morning, and expired before reaching the latter place. He notified the brakeman when boarding the cars in Chicago that he was ill, and a watch was therefore kept on him. An undertaker was telegraphed for to meet the train on its arrival here. From papers on the body it was ascertained that the man was G. A. Shattreck of Parsons, Kan. His destination was Kalamazoo, Michigan.

No Hope For Senator Colquitt's Recovery.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Senator Colquitt passed a comfortable night, but it was said by a member of his family today that his condition is about the same as that of yesterday. The present attack is said to be the result of progress of paralysis, from which he has suffered for a long time rather than from a recent attack. The tonsils are also affected. The physician said this morning that the patient's condition had not changed since yesterday, but that the case is hopeless. The senator's mind is clear.

Cleared of Embezzlement.

LIMA, O., March 22.—After being out three hours, the jury in the Langan case, brought in a verdict of "not guilty." The trial lasted nine days and has cost the county about $4,000. Langan, while cashier of the Lima bank, acted as treasurer of the Columbus, Lima and Milwaukee railroad. He was charged by B. C. Faurot, president of both institutions, with embezzlement on 17 different counts. The verdict meets with general approval.

Convicts Escape.

LITTLE ROCK, March 22.—Eight convicts in citizen's clothes yesterday escaped from the guards at the penitentiary. Four were recaptured and the others are still at large. At noon, while a gang of 40 convicts were being conveyed to the penitentiary, 11 of them broke away from the guards. One volley from the guards' Winchester stopped all but two of the gang. At the second fire, Jim Kelly was killed and Dan Smith wounded, but escaped. The two convicts named were white men.

Were Cleaning Carpet With Gasoline.

BEVIDERE, Ills., March 22.—As the result of a gasoline explosion here Mrs. J. Westfall, Mrs. Barney Manley, Miss Grace Barker and a six-month-old son of Mrs. Manley were frightfully burned. Mrs. Westfall's injuries are thought to be fatal. The women were cleaning a carpet with gasoline and a coal stove in the room ignited the gas. The house caught fire but was saved.

Incendiary Fires.

POMEROY, O., March 21.—Within the past few days a fire fiend has done destructive work in the eastern part of this county. Five barns with a dozen head of horses and cows, a schoolhouse and fine residence have been burned, two women narrowly escaping from the latter. It is supposed to be the work of an insane person. Officers have taken the matter up.

Residence Blown Up and Burned.

MUNCIE, Ind., March 22.—Reports reach this city stating that Eli Clark's residence, 15 miles north of Muncie, was blown up by natural gas yesterday evening and burned. His small child was cremated and five of the family were seriously injured.

Sent Up For Ten Years.

LANCASTER, O., March 22.—Judge Slough overruled the application for a new trial of Edward Buechler, convicted last Friday of manslaughter in the killing of Tom J. Davis, and sentenced him immediately to 10 years in the penitentiary.

Farmer Fenner Tires of His Job, Resigns Twice and Then Quits.

Stone's Corners, up in McHenry county, Ills., is without a postoffice. Hamlin Fenner, a once contented farmer, who shouted long and loud for Grover Cleveland and presided at all the Democratic pole raisings in the "deestrick," secured the appointment as postmaster at the Corners when the Democracy came into its own and got along swimmingly until he came up to the fair and learned at the Washington state building of the gigantic trees and fertile farms in the far west. After that the postoffice business at Stone's Corners seemed flat, stale and unprofitable.

Farmer Fenner wanted to quit the postal service and get back to his native element on a western farm. So he resigned. He sent his letter to Washington, but received no answer. Then he sent another and waited, but still no answer came. Last Monday Fenner became desperate. He had resigned twice and decided to force an acceptance, so he packed the postage stamps, postal cards, money, mucilage and ink bottles in a sack together and carried them over to Richmond. Taking the sack into the postoffice, he chucked it into a corner, saying to the postmaster:

"There's the Stone's Corners postoffice. I've resigned twice, and now I've quit." Assistant Postmaster Benton of Richmond has been ordered to take charge of the office.—Chicago Post.

AN ATROCIOUS MURDER.

One Man Kills Two Others and Then Makes His Escape.

HAMMOND, Ind., March 22.—An atrocious murder was committed at Tolleston yesterday evening. The victims are James Conroy and William Cleary, who were employed as watchmen in the Tolleston Shooting club ground. The men in some way became involved in a quarrel with Albert Tooker and were getting the best of the argument when the latter drew a big navy pistol and fired six shots, killing both men.

After the murder Tooker took to the woods. A vigilance committee was immediately organized, and 10 minutes later about 75 farmers, armed with shotguns, rifles, clubs and hayforks, began scouring the woods and swamps. Tooker will be lynched if he is captured.

Asking Executive Interference.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., March 22.—Two telegrams were received at the executive office yesterday, asking interference in the case of Frendergast, the slayer of Mayor Harrison of Chicago. One was signed C. S. Darrow and S. S. Gregory. The other was from S. S. Gregory and was addressed to Acting Governor Gill, asking him to go to Chicago, to consider application of reprieve. The messages were sent to Governor Altgeld at Biloxi, Miss., and Acting Governor Gill at Murphysboro.

Car Sheds Burned by Lightning.

ST. LOUIS, March 21.—The Cardinal avenue car sheds of the Laclede avenue division of the Missouri Railway company here were struck by lightning about midnight last night and burned to the ground, causing a loss of $100,000, fully covered by insurance. Eleven motors and 53 trailers valued at $90,000 were destroyed. The Missouri Railway company operates the Market street and Laclede avenue electric lines and the Olive street cable.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

THE ATTRACTIVE ADVERTISEMENT.

The well written, sensible advertisement attracting you by its businesslike makeup, its forcible statements, its neat appearance, is like the attractive sign on a businesslike store. It causes you to remember what is offered by the advertiser. The prominent and interesting facts are impressed on your mind, and even when you lay the paper down you have a pretty clear remembrance of what you have read, all because the whole thing was presented in an attractive manner; and if this result can be obtained, an advertiser has all that he can reasonably expect to secure.

The theory that attracting attention will sell goods is a mighty poor one for the storekeeper to believe.

To be sure, it will help sell goods; but to make it effective the advertisement must be backed up by facts, and withal it must be well written. After the attention of the reader has been attracted there must be sufficient strength to the reading matter and a crispness and an individuality to it that will make him finish reading your article.

An advertisement should have an air of individuality. Like a certain spring tonic, it should be "peculiar to itself." Care should be taken, however, not to imitate.

Because one man has made a wonderful success by his methods of advertising, it does not follow that another man can repeat that success by imitations.

In fact it is generally a detriment rather than an advantage to copy after others.

The success of many of our now prominent firms has been due to the exceeding quaintness, the novel feature, the curious style, etc., of their advertisements, but above all, to their attractiveness.

Right there is the sum and substance of good advertising—attraction; not the old stereotyped forms—the century-old methods of our respected forefathers—but something new and bright, something out of the usual; peculiar, odd, unique, striking, but attractive, no matter in what form it is put.

Take up a paper anywhere, how dull and stupid the advertisements are generally—how monotonous they seem.

But stay; we see, shining out like a diamond in the dark, a striking, catchy advertisement. Do we read it? We do! and remember it, too.

Aged Woman Walks Over 500 Miles.

Mrs. Anna Peterson of Denver, 60 years of age, walked into Pueblo at 2 o'clock Saturday morning, having come on foot from the Cherokee strip, 650 miles, with the exception of a trifle over 100 miles, which she rode on a train. She went to the strip at the opening, but with starvation staring her in the face she set out for Denver and averaged more than 20 miles every day she walked.—Pueblo (Colo.) Special.
